ENTRY METHODS

To participate in a Promotion, the Participant who meets the above Eligibility Requirements shall submit an entry (“Entry”) following the instructions and using the Entry Method specified by the Station. Such Entry may include submitting information about the Participant, including but not limited to name, date of birth, physical address, phone number, email address, and/or any additional contact information as may requested (collectively, the “Data”).

Some Promotions, as part of the Entry, may require the Participant to provide a Skill Response or UGC. If so, the criteria for answering questions or judging the UGC in selecting a Winner will be provided on air and/or on the Station’s website. If there is a tie for a winning position in a Promotion, judges will reevaluate the tied Entries to determine the Winner. All terms and conditions for submitting UGC with an Entry can be found below in the “User Generate Content” Section of these Official Rules.

Some Promotions may involve nominating third parties by submitting Entries on their behalf without their knowledge (“Nominated Parties”), so they may be eligible to participate in a Promotion. Because these Entries may contain third party data without the knowledge of the third parties (“Third-Party Data”), Participants will be required to work with the Station to obtain any necessary documents, releases, liability waivers, permissions, additional information, and/or approvals (collectively, any “Releases”) from any Nominated Parties before they can be declared the Winners of any Promotions. Participants understand and agree that the Nominated Parties, not the Participants, shall receive any Prize in connection with the Promotion unless otherwise noted in the Official Rules.
All Entries must be received by 11:59 PM local time on the last day of the Entry Period, unless otherwise specified, to be eligible to win the Prize. Any Entries received after that time will be void. Odds of winning depend upon the number of eligible valid Entries received during the Entry Period.

After submitting a completed Entry, Participant will be eligible for a chance to win. Every Entry must be received by 11:59 PM local time on the last day of the Entry Period or it will be void. Unless otherwise specified by the Station, Participants may submit only one (1) Entry per Promotion, regardless of Entry Method, during the Entry Period.

If registering online is an Entry Method, then Participant should follow these instructions:

Participant must register online through the Station’s website, as announced on the air or posted on the Station’s website. To submit an Entry, Participants should follow the on-screen instructions at the Station’s website to enter the Data as requested. If the Promotion requires UGC or a Skill Response, Participants will also be given an opportunity to upload those additional items. After completing the registration process with the Data and any necessary UGC or Skill Response, if applicable, the Entry will be qualified for a chance to win.

If registering during a live broadcast is an Entry Method, then the Participant should follow these instructions:

Participants must listen to the Station for the on-air announcement regarding which designated caller that contacts the Station will be eligible to win the Prize and whether a Skill Response will be required of the Participant. Upon revealing the designated caller number and the phone number, the Participant calling the phone number (and giving the correct Skill Response, if any) will be the Winner. By using this Entry Method, Participants consent to the Station recording any telephone conversation made to the Station for this purpose.

If the Station determines the designated caller does not satisfy the Eligibility Requirements or is otherwise not qualified to participate, Station may select the next consecutive eligible caller as the Winner for that playtime. Participants are required to listen to Station for details on specific times to play. The dates and times for such Promotions may vary and shall be determined solely by the Station. The Station may or may not choose to air all playtimes due to programming obligations and other factors.

Listeners to streamed broadcasts over the internet may experience a lag in transmissions due to buffering limitations. Participants should not rely on streamed broadcasts to participate in any real-time Promotions that require immediate action to participate. Company assumes no responsibility for Participants not being able to participate in such Promotions in a timely manner as a result of delays in the streamed broadcast or any other technical issue related to method the Participant is using to listen to the broadcast.

If Text Messaging is an Entry Method, then the Participants should follow these instructions:

Participants may then be sent a text message asking them to sign up for the Station’s text club (“Text Club”). Participants must reply “Y” to complete sign up for the Text Club. Upon entry in the Text Club, Participants will be sent a text message to confirm or reject Entry into the Promotion. Participants may text STOP to stop... and/or HELP for help. Consent to receive texts is not required for Entry in the Promotion. By signing up for the Text Club, Participants agree to receive autodialed Station and third-party ads to the number provided by the Participant.

Instead of automatically entering the Participant into the Promotion and/or asking the Participant to join the Text Club, the text from the Station may direct the Participant to the Station’s website, where Participants should follow the on-screen instructions, including entering any Data as requested. If the Promotion requires UGC, Participants will also be given then opportunity upload the UGC. After completing the registration process, with the UGC if required, and any Data, the Entry will be qualified for a chance to win.

Participants may receive additional autodialed text messages if the Participant becomes a finalist, qualifier, or Winner, as may be applicable for the Promotion.

If posting to Social Media is an Entry Method, then the Participant should follow these instructions for the applicable platform(s):

Entries on Facebook must be posted by the end of the Entry Period to be eligible to win the Prize.

Participants may only submit one Entry using the social media Entry Method, regardless of social media platform. If registering at an in-person event is an Entry Method, then the Participant should follow these instructions:
